

THE WORD ON THE STREET

SASKATOON BOOK & MAGAZINE FESTIVAL

Donate to The Word On The Street

The Word On The Street Saskatoon invites you to consider joining our group of important supporters.

This year will mark the seventh annual The Word On The Street Festival in Saskatoon, now one of the leading cultural events in the city. The Festival has quickly grown from humble beginnings to become a huge and popular event for the entire family. The largest book and magazine festival in Canada, The Word On The Street is 100% Canadian and 100% free. As a not-for-profit organization, we rely on the support of the community to bring this exciting literary festival to Saskatoon.

Our donors contribute to all areas of the Festival program, including author fees, travel and accommodations for Festival guests, production expenses, and venue costs. Donations of any size will help us continue to present an inspiring, entertaining, and thought-provoking program for readers of all ages.

With readings by national headliners and many local writers, panel discussions, workshops, entertainers, a vibrant exhibitor marketplace, and many activities for children, The Word On The Street is for everyone who reads!

Please help to ensure the Festival continues to thrive.

Donations can be sent by mail to

The Word on the Street
P.O. Box 39042
Saskatoon, SK S7V 0A9

Donations can be made online at www.canadahelps.org/en/donate

1. Under "Get Started: Find a Charity" type The Word On The Street & click search
2. Select The Word On The Street Canada
3. Scroll down to "Donate to This Charity Now"
4. On the grey box that says "General" click on the arrow, and then select "The Word On The Street Saskatoon - General Fund"
5. Click the red button "Continue with My Donation" and fill in your information
6. A charitable tax receipt will be mailed to you.

Celebrate Reading. Advocate Literacy. Donate Today.